BROCHURE

Hi!

I'm Robyn,

your calm in the chaos,
your laughter in the nerves,
your hairstylist for timeless elegance with a modern edge.

Welcome to Your Perfect Silhouette Wedding Hair Journey

Congratulations on your engagement!

At the heart of my work is the belief that everyone deserves to feel calm, confident, and beautifully themselves on their wedding day. I don't just style hair – I create a safe, joyful space where you can let go of nerves, feel truly seen, and step into your day with quiet confidence.

I combine professionalism and organisation with warmth, fun, and a calming energy that brings balance to the buzz of a wedding morning. I listen deeply, communicate clearly, and support my brides throughout the whole journey – not just on the day.

This brochure is your gateway to a luxurious wedding hair journey. Whether you're planning an intimate gathering or a grand celebration, there's a package here with your name on it.

So why choose me?

When it comes to your wedding morning, you deserve more than just “nice hair.” You deserve someone who brings calm, fun, and structure to the most important start of your life - while creating a look that feels completely you. Here’s what my brides and newlyweds love most about working with me:

- More than a stylist - I’m that calm, fun presence who feels like part of your wedding party, not just someone who turns up with a kit.
- Guidance with ease - I’ll keep the morning flowing smoothly and on time, with structure, calm, and the odd silly joke to take the edge off.
- Fiercely protective of your energy - From booking to aisle, you’ll feel safe, seen, and supported every step of the way.
- Personal, not generic - You’ll never feel like “just another bride.” I’ll get to know you, reply to your DMs, and probably share nail inspo with you before the big day.
- Organised & responsive - Quick replies, clear guidance, and genuine care so you’re never left wondering.
- Your look, elevated - Elegant, modern, textured-but-polished styles that tie perfectly into your vision. Hair so flawless you won’t even have to think about it - just walk down the aisle with quiet confidence.
- An experience, not just a hairstyle - Past brides say I became part of the morning - calming the nerves, bringing the fun, and making everyone look and feel amazing.

What my brides say

I am not exaggerating when I say choosing Robyn to be my wedding hairstylist was one of the best bridal decisions I made. Over a year on, and she still feels like a genuine friend. She absolutely saved me on a wedding morning of pure chaos, and was the laughter and calming presence I really, really needed. It also helps that she is absolutely banging at her job, and my hair looked absolutely incredible. I could not recommend Robyn enough, I promise you it will be the absolute best decision you'll make.

Robyn is the GOAT. The end. Joking aside, Robyn really is the loveliest and most talented stylist you will ever meet. Ever since she did my sister in laws hair for her wedding a few years ago, I knew I wanted Robyn to be part of my big day (and I wasn't even engaged yet). I've had my hair done for a new years ball and I've even modelled for a wedding fair with Robyn and each time, I can honestly say my hair has been perfect! As for my wedding day, Robyn was more like a member of my bridal party! She got on with all my bridesmaids, brought an amazing vibe and even helped me with my dress. And most importantly, my hair was stunning! I wouldn't have wanted anyone else and I would highly recommend Robyn to anyone and everyone xxx

The Extra Bits

Travel

For journeys exceeding 15 miles from my home address (LN2), a travel fee of 50p per mile (each way) will apply.

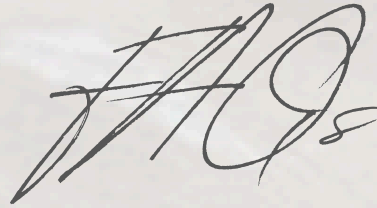

Should the total travel time exceed two hours, an overnight accommodation fee of £100 (£150 for Greater London area) will apply to ensure I am able to stay in close proximity to your getting-ready location.

Assistant Fee

For larger parties with an early start time (before 5am), I may bring along a trusted stylist to help ensure every member of your party is styled to perfection without any rush.

An assistant fee of £150 will be added to your quote if deemed necessary for your day.

(Please note: This service is unavailable on Saturdays between May and September.)

Q. Where does the trial take place?

A. All trials are held at my home studio (LN2)

Q. When do I have the trial?

A. I recommend having your trial around 8-12 weeks before the big day. This way your hair will be most like the colour and length it will be on the day and you will have a stronger vision for your overall look.

Q. How long before the ceremony do I need to be ready?

A. I will always aim to get your hair finished for one hour before the ceremony starts or before you need to leave. This is to allow time to get dressed, have photos and touch ups before you leave

Q. How does it work with makeup on the day?

A. I will create a schedule for the morning based on yours and your party's desired styles and hair textures. I will then liaise with you makeup artist to make sure there are no clashes with hair and makeup so it all runs smoothly.

Q. How much deposit do you require and when do I pay the final balance?

A. It's a £100 deposit to secure your date. A post trial payment is due after your trial and the rest of the balance is due a week before the wedding date.
